

The installation of the play equipment on the primary playground was ready to use on Monday.

The pupils have had great fun with this new addition to their playtime.