Do you want to work somewhere that gives you a good feeling every day?

Samuel Cody School is a special school for pupils aged from 4 -16 with moderate learning difficulties and autism. Due to the expansion of our primary school from September 2024 we are seeking to recruit two creative and energetic teachers with an ability and willingness to teach our primary pupils who have Moderate Learning Difficulties and ASD.

Our school is a successful, friendly and forward thinking school where everyone is encouraged to do their best and achieve their full potential, a place where everybody is valued and respected.

We offer you a skilled, hardworking and dedicated staff team willing to offer support and expertise to develop your own practise

You will be a strong team player with high expectations of pupils' achievement and behaviour. You will be committed to improving standards and ensuring all learners achieve their very best and have the skills to create a stimulating and purposeful learning environment.

You will have a positive attitude, excellent interpersonal skills and commitment to working in partnership with parents/carers, our Governors, and the local community to secure the best possible learning and teaching for all. Visits to the school are recommended.

We are looking for an enthusiastic teacher who:

- is passionate about making a difference for every pupil
- has a passion for working with children, and helping them improve in character through developing their resilience and mindset as well as in qualification;
- is committed to providing high quality learning experiences for all pupils;
- is a team player, able to inspire and work in partnership with staff, parents and pupils
- has high expectations of themselves as well as the children
- is well-organised with excellent interpersonal and communication skills.

We can offer you:

- A friendly and welcoming team who are committed to achieving the best outcomes for all pupils
- Opportunities for continuing professional development.
- A school rooted firmly in our local community
- Excellent facilities
